24 BETTER TO GIVE

In five years, NFL Auctions has grown into one of the most trusted sources for signed and game-used items in the sports memorabilia industry, while at the same time raised millions for charities.

Larry Johnson was bad news for any defense during the second half of the season. More of his super-hot RCs made the Hot List this month (page 29).

TACKLING OPTIONAL

Texas Longhorns QB Vince Young glides in for the game-winning touchdown (his third of the night) in the Rose Bowl to give Texas its first National Championship in 35 years. Young actually has a handful of cards to collect. Get the latest info on them in Market Watch on page 30.

KICKOFF

BURNT ORANGE ROSES

DAVID LEE, EDITOR

The stage was Super Bowl-big. The hype seemed impossible to live up to. But the Rose Bowl met, maybe even surpassed, every expectation - 1,130 yards of offense, 10 touchdowns, 79 points that ended in a fourth-quarter shootout.

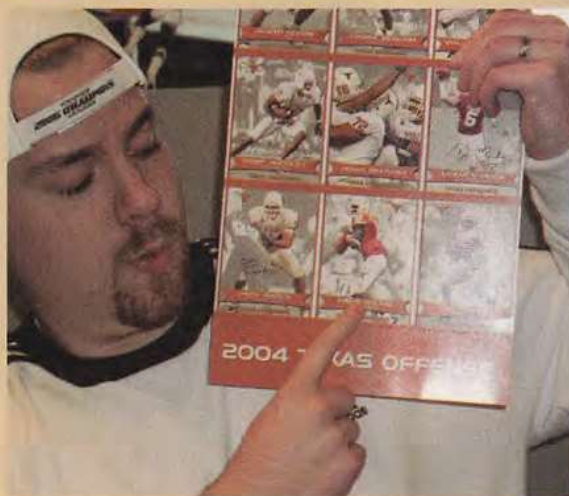

All of the big-time players, including the top three Heisman finalists, played like superstars. The game wore on like a heavyweight fight coming down to which fighter could throw the bigger knockout punch. Texas and USC had NFL-caliber talent backing up NFL-caliber talent.

Considering I wasn't alive when the Texas Longhorns won their last national championship, for me, a Longhorns fan since diapers, the Rose Bowl was the game of a lifetime. As I sat and watched the post-game shows and interviews, I felt like a kid who'd just opened the best Christmas present ever. I'm so proud of my Longhorns, and as much as I'd like to see Vince Young stay to make another title run, I sure am looking forward to collecting his cards.

A football card season with Young, Reggie Bush and Matt Leinart Rookie Cards would be unreal. Our hobby could be on the verge of a huge boost with superstars like that. We'll keep you informed in the coming months of the first cards for these guys, assuming Young and Bush enter the draft.

For now, the football card market is all about the 1998 Playoff Contenders Peyton Manning. It came out of nowhere last month and shot up to a high Price Guide value of $2,500, making it the third most valuable football base card in history. Check page 23 for the complete history of this card.

Next month will be our Best of 2005 issue, as we look at the top products, Rookie Cards and everything else that stood out through the year. This year, we want to hear from you. Go to Beckett.com to vote for your favorites in the Readers Choice categories.

DOES THE HARBAUGH EXIST?

I am currently trying to complete a 1997 Leaf Signature 8x10 autograph set that I've been working on for two years and have had no luck uncovering a Jim Harbaugh autograph. According to your checklist, it is a card in the set. However, from past experience, this checklist has been incorrect, because it did not contain the Jerry Rice card from the set.

Could you please confirm if the Jim Harbaugh is an actual card in the set and if there have been sightings of this card? I've seen every other card in the set.

— Frank Krein, via Beckett.com

Yes, it does exist. We've gathered a number of different confirmed sales over the years, but it is one of the short-printed quarterback club players who are reported to have signed no more than 500 copies. Remember also that Harbaugh was a popular Chicago Bears player as well as a red hot Colts quarterback in 1995 when he led the team through an incredible season and run through the playoffs earning him the nickname "Captain Comeback." Therefore many of the cards likely reside in collections, so they rarely come up for sale.

— Dan Hitt

MISSING SERIAL NUMBERS

Did the 2004 Skybox LE set have non-serial numbered versions of the die-cut rookies? I've run across several being auctioned and the backs do not have a serial number. One I saw was not die cut. Are these legitimate cards?

— Russ Wingerter, via Beckett.com

Apparently, a number of cards missing the serial numbers were initially purchased at the Fleer inventory liquidation auction a few months ago. They've since made their way into eBay auctions and other card selling venues. It's too early to tell from limited information if collectors will take the historical approach and shy away from paying premiums for them since they are missing an essential part of the printing process.

There's always a chance that some might consider the cards more scarce variations, but that's a long shot. We're going to research the non-die cut version more, but they could be from the auction as well, or possibly from some version of retail packs. Either way, those would be considered a variation worthy of cataloging.

— DH

WHERE ARE THE BUY BACKS?

I have a question regarding 2004 Topps Fan Favorites Buy Back Autographs. I recently pulled one of these cards from a retail pack. After doing some research, I noticed that on the My Collections on Beckett.com, only the 1964

Topps Buy Back DM1 and 1967 Topps Buy Back DM2 are

BOB SANDERS BOWMAN'S BEST VARIATIONS

I have a Bob Sanders 2004 Bowman's Best auto. The auto is not from him. I compared it to other autos on eBay. There was only one other one that I saw like mine in almost a year. I bought that card, so now I have two autos that are not his. I pulled the first card from a pack, so it's legit. You can clearly see that the auto is not his. Are these two rare cards worth anything or are they worthless?

— Josh Jorgenson, via Beckett.com

Topps confirmed that Bob Sanders indeed signed all of his Bowman's Best Rookie Cards, but simply used two distinctly different styles. Our opinion is also that both 'graphs are from Sanders. The jersey number "21" signed on most of the cards shows great similarity. This card is very hot at the moment and there appears to be a gap in selling price developing between the two versions. The long signature version is a little tougher to find and has been selling at slightly higher price levels. — DH listed. The card I got was a 1968 Topps Buy Back Autograph and was not listed. Did Topps ever announce how many of each year was released, since there is a stated print run of 20 cards per player?

– Michael Bentzen, via Beckett.com

No, Topps never did announce which cards were signed and in what quantities. We did add your Don Maynard card to our checklist and welcome other additions to our "work-in-progress" list.

– DH

EBAY AND THE PRICE GUIDE

Recently I was going to put a friend's card collection on eBay. Some of the Rookie Cards were Elway, Montana, Walter Payton, Cal Ripken, Roberto Clemente and Dick Butkus.

We were using your prices as our guidelines. Out of curiosity we checked these cards on eBay and found them to be half to a third of your prices. Many of these cards were in mint condition.

Where are you getting your prices? On the Internet, they don't bring anything close to what you're saying. Who buys these cards for the prices you are quoting, and where does one find buyers who will pay those prices?

– Randy Oliver, via Beckett.com

Ah, the million dollar question. We do factor in eBay sales every month to help determine our pricing.

However, that is just one part of the formula. Card shop and show sales are also an integral part. Keep in mind that eBay sales on most cards are generally 40-50 percent of our high book value simply because of the level of competition, as well as the risk factor in doing business through the mail with an often unknown seller.

Cards from the era that you mentioned are selling are very condition sensitive, and often sell at mere fractions of book value because of it. Having them graded by a third party beforehand will lead to sales more in line with Beckett values.

– DH

BROKEN RING OF HONOR?

A couple months ago I got a Topps Ring of Honor Tom Brady autograph card. It's a 2004 card and has "Super Bowl XXXVIII MVP on top. I found the price for a 2002 Topps Ring of Honor card, but can't find the price for mine.

– Jake Levens, Huntington Beach, Calif.

The Topps Ring of Honor set, consisting of past Super Bowl MVPs, was released in 2002. The set listing can be found under the 2002 Topps listing. The cool thing about this set is that Topps continues to build on it by releasing an autographed card of the new Super Bowl MVP every year.

Brady was the MVP in 2002, so that was his first card in the set.

Tampa Bay safety Dexter Jackson was MVP in 2003, Brady again in 2004 (your card) and Patriots receiver Deion Branch in 2005. These three subsequent cards for the Ring of Honor sets are listed with their corresponding Topps sets at the end of the base set listing. The 2004 Brady card is currently listed at $250-$350.

– David Lee

ULTIMATE ELWAY LIST

I have always been an Elway fan, but I've recently decided to pursue only his autographed and jersey cards. What is the best (fastest and most comprehensive) way to get a listing of all of his autographed and jersey cards?

Should I just search through Beckett magazines and Beckett.com, or are there resources that have already compiled this information? I would certainly pay for a complete list of his auto and jersey cards. Where should I look for the most complete list?

– Jimmy Dennett, Columbus, Ohio

We get these questions all the time, Jimmy. Our Online Price Guides give you the ability to search by player, set or year. With an OPG subscription, you can pull up a list of every John Elway card known to man. You can then search for his autographed and jersey cards.

However, if online isn't your thing, you'll be happy to know that we plan on following the efforts of our baseball brethren and publish a football card alphabetical checklist book that is scheduled to release in May (the baseball book released in December). It's the mother of all checklists. It's a phonebook on the juice. It will include every player and every football card in history. We expect this monster to sell quickly, so be sure to keep checking Beckett.com this spring for more info.

– DL

WIN IT

THIS MONTH'S TOPIC

The 2005 hobby football season is coming to a close. So, make your case for what you think was the best overall card product of 2005. Did you like the rookies, the box breaks, the inserts, the price? Please keep your entries under 200 words. The best submission, as judged by us, will win an Alex Smith 2005 Sweet Spot autographed Rookie Card.

(Please include your name and address. Entries must be received by Feb. 3.)

Winner from the November issue on the Offensive and Defensive Rookies of the Year.

"The Offensive Rookie of the Year is a little more tough. It would be Kyle Orton. Through 11 games this team is 8-3, when last year they only won five games all year. He may not be an All-Star yet, but he keeps this Bears team in games to win at the end.

"The Defense Rookie of the Year is definitely Shawne Merriman. With seven sacks and 33 tackles through 10 games, teams are already double-teaming this young defender to keep him away from their quarterback. He has single handedly made the San Diego defense one to be wary of."

(For his winning entry, Matt wins a 2005 UD Portraits Memorable Materials Carson Palmer.)

Auction Action

Big-Time sales from late-season auctions

Original Plaster Cast of the Heisman Trophy

PRICE: $228,000

This is the original plaster cast of perhaps the most famous award in sports. It was completed by sculptor Frank Eliscu in 1935 at the ripe old age of 23. It is the same mold from which each of the 71 Heismans have been sculpted. This is where it all started. (SC Plus)

1941 Bruce Smith Heisman Trophy

PRICE: $395,241

Including this great specimen, only six known Heisman Trophies have ever been offered to the highest bidder. This one was awarded to Bruce Smith, who as a running back, led Minnesota to unbeaten championship seasons in 1940 and 1941. (Leland's)

1950s Coca-Cola NFL Advertising Sign with Four African-American Hall of Famers

PRICE: $6,070

This incredibly rare ad piece features four black players who went on to become members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame — Len Ford, Marion Motley, Emlen Tunnell and Bill Willis. It was likely part of an ad campaign aimed at Americans of color, meaning they were only put out in limited areas, making it a true rarity. (Mastro)

2002 Brett Favre Game-Worn Packers Green Jersey

PRICE: $4,294

Rumors swirl about whether football fans have seen Favre under center for the last time or not. Whether the Southern Miss product is retiring or not, his place as one of the top QBs in NFL history is secure. He wore this green Packers jersey in 1992, some four years before he led the Pack to the Super Bowl title. (Grey Flannel)

1966 Green Bay Packers Super Bowl I Team-Signed Football

PRICE: $11,400

Legendary head coach Vince Lombardi led the Packers to Super Bowl I in 1967 at the famous LA Coliseum. The Pack prevailed 35-10 over Kansas City as QB Bart Starr was named MVP after throwing for 250 yards and two scores, both caught by reserve WR Max McGee. This signed pigskin forever commemorates that first Super Bowl title for Lombardi and Green Bay. (SC Plus)

Sonny Jurgenson Rookie-Era Game-Worn Eagles Jersey

PRICE: $14,616

Jurgenson is regarded as one of the greatest signal callers in NFL history. He wore this home, white No. 9 Eagles jersey in 1957-58, just a few years before he became the team's starter. The rest, as they say, is history. (Grey Flannel)

Nile Kinnick 1943 Handwritten Signed Letter With Original Photos

PRICE: $6,926

Kinnick won the 1939 Heisman Trophy at Iowa but turned down a professional career to serve his country as a Navy pilot. In 1943, he decided to ditch his plane at sea during a training exercise and was never seen again, a decision that saved countless lives. This letter was written shortly before his death. (Leland's)

1950s Lou Creekmur Detroit Lions Game-Worn Jersey

PRICE: $7,985

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, former Lions offensive lineman Lou Creekmur is considered a big reason for their three NFL titles in the 1950s. Here is a game-worn, home jersey of his from that era. (Mastro)

$13.5 Million

Upper Deck Clears Up Predictor Card Confusion

The NFL MVP and Rookie of the Year Predictor cards released in 2005 Upper Deck and 2005 Rookie Debut (respectively) include Field Cards and Wild Cards. These cards have created some confusion as to what they represent in the Predictor program. According to Upper Deck, these cards represent any player not in the MVP and Rookie of the Year Predictor sets. Some of these cards have been selling for more than any of the player cards, indicating that some collectors have misunderstood what these cards represent. However, these cards are NOT winners.

The winning Rookie of the Year Predictor card is the Cadillac Williams, since that program was for the Offensive ROY. Shaun Alexander was named NFL MVP, so his card is the winner for that Predictor program.

Upper Deck has confirmed that these winning cards will be redeemed for a randomly-selected autograph card, and not necessarily an autograph of Williams or Alexander.

FREE Topps Card

The Cedric Benson card included in this issue is the last card in the exclusive seven-card set releasing only in issues of Beckett Football. Featuring the 1956 Topps design, it is a bookend card along with card #1 – the Alex Smith in the 1956 design.

Topps Announces Print Runs for Short-Printed All-American Autographs

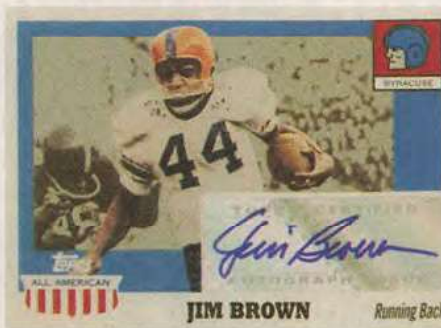

Topps recently announced the print runs for the 2005 Topps All-American Autographs, featuring several short printed players. Following are those short prints accompanied by the number of cards signed. Note that there are only four Barry Sanders cards, meaning that only four possible "complete sets" can be made. Nine players, including Jim Brown, Joe Montana and John Elway are numbered to just 19.

GRADE SCHOOL

CONDITION SENSITIVE

2005 TOPPS HERITAGE

This hot new issue features some great vintage designs of yesteryear from six past Topps sets plus rookies and short prints. What more could you possibly want? How about a Gem Mint 9.5 on that Rookie Card?

To get the Gem Mint, you gotta know the condition issues. Overall, centering appears to range from 8.5 to Gem Mint 9.5. Corners are a problem, with an overall average grade of 8 to 9. The surface grades average from 8 to 9. Black print dots on the front surface appear to be a common issue. This is a super-looking new set with some condition issues to watch for when selecting cards to grade.

ASK BGS

Mark "The Hammer" Anderson, BGS
Manager of Operations

Q: Do you grade after-market autographed cards?

A: No, at this time, BGS only grades certified autograph cards, normally issued in packs or sets. Cards signed after release from the manufacturer are generally not gradable, nor are cards signed in person or through the mail.

Do you have a question about the grading process? Send your grading or collecting questions to: askbgs@beckett.com

GRADER TIPSHEET

SHAKEN CARD SYNDROME

What the heck is "Shaken Card Syndrome?" When a card can be moved ever so slightly inside of a graded holder and slight damage to edges and corners can occur. This damage lowers the actual condition of the card regardless of what the label on the slab says. Cards encapsulated in your everyday run-of-the-mill graded holder that are not protected with an inner sleeve are susceptible to "SCS."

BGS holders use a unique inner sleeve that prevents this movement. Now, this sleeve isn't some cheap penny sleeve, but a custom inner sleeve designed for the sole purpose of reducing the risk of SCS. Stop the spread of SCS now. Compare other holders to a BGS holder and see the amazing difference for yourself.

COLLECTING THE GREAT INDOORS

Just in time for its landmark 20th season, the Arena Football League comes of age with its most collectible season ever

BY TRACY HACKLER

For the better part of its first 19 years, the uncannily captivating Arena Football League projected an excitement-to-collectibles ratio that seemed almost criminal in its one-sidedness: A league that was off-the-charts entertaining on the field offered next to nothing for diehard devotees to harvest off of it.

And that, quite frankly, became problematic.

After all, a cult-like fan base with no collectibles to cultivate could grow far less cult-like in pretty short order. So AFL officials decided to do something about it.

What started as more of a whisper last year when Upper Deck produced the first nationally distributed trading card set in the league's history has turned into something far more significant. The AFL, on the eve of its landmark 20th season, has quietly, finally, blossomed into a bona fide "collecting sport" – yet one more in a seemingly endless list of signs that the fan-friendly game with the breakneck pace has hit the big time.

"The AFL's recent growth – 41 percent attendance increase, expansion teams, increased viewership – has resulted in increased popularity in the league, its teams and its players, and hence, more demand for all consumer products, including collectibles," says much-admired AFL commissioner David Baker, the 6-9, 400-pound mountain of a man credited with shepherding the AFL to unparalleled heights since taking over in 1996. "There's no question that we are being accepted into the mainstream of society, and having popular collectibles plays a significant role in that."

Perhaps none was more popular or significant than Upper Deck's premiere trading card set, which exposed football cards to AFL fans for the first time.

"Trading cards are an essential element for any major league," Baker says. "Every sports fan has traded cards of their favorite players. We couldn't have been pleased more with our first set from Upper Deck last year."

It's worth noting that Baker appeared with country music superstar and Nashville Kats co-owner Tim McGraw on one of the most popular cards in that set, one with autographs from both men that's valued today at $175.

Unfortunately, that value didn't ring true with everyone. "One day my girlfriend asked me for money for groceries and I handed her my card and told her how much it was worth," Baker says. "She was not pleased."

Here's betting she'll be a lot more pleased in 2006, when the league her boyfriend masterfully directs enjoys the most collectible season in its history.

CARD COLLECTING: AN INDOOR ACTIVITY

All you need to know about the success of Upper Deck's maiden AFL trading card set is this: It's almost impossible to find today, less than a year after its release. Boxes have all but dried up and the few singles that occasionally pop up either don't last long or go for a quick premium.

That's a testament to the quality and limited nature of UD's premiere effort, for sure. But it also speaks to a long-standing demand finally being supplied.

AFL collectors still conducting fruitless searches for what's left of 2005 can finally rest easy. Upper Deck's new-and-improved 2006 product is slated to hit stores in early February, packing a robust 200-player checklist (up from 90 last year) and much improved ratios on the popular game-worn memorabilia and certified autographed cards (both will fall two per box in 2006; 2005 boxes delivered two jersey cards and one autograph, on average).

"For the first year, Upper Deck's Arena Football League product was accepted well in the hobby," says Gordon Torigoe, the associate brand manager for UD's AFL product line. "We hope to improve on that in 2006 with better content and an earlier release date, which will allow us to have product in the marketplace from the beginning of the AFL regular season through the ArenaBowl in June."

One of the most appealing – and perhaps most underrated – aspects of last year's product was its throwback simplicity (not to mention a palatable $2.99 pack price). There was a base set, one parallel set, five standard insert sets and the aforementioned memorabilia and autographed sets. The 2006 version will follow much the same recipe, but with some compelling new twists.

New for '06 will be Arenagraphs Triples (cards sequentially numbered to just 10 featuring three player autographs) and randomly inserted redemption cards good for team-signed AFL footballs. Also look for another groundbreaking card sure to make huge waves in the AFL's Madison Avenue headquarters: A game-worn suit card honoring the league's sizable commish.

"The suit card is the next step," says Baker. "I don't know where they get these ideas, but I'm game. It killed me that they had to cut up one of my favorite suits. I can assure any collector who gets this card that the suit is game worn."

Returning from last season are the five basic insert sets (League Leaders, Arena Award Winners, ArenaBowl Recap, Arena Action and AFL Dream Team Dancers), a base-set parallel numbered to 100, AFL Fabrics game-worn jersey cards and Arenagraphs and Arenagraphs Duals autographed cards.

Overall, insert cards will fall one per pack in 2006, which is a marked improvement from the 2005 edition.

"We are excited about the AFL fan base and hope to grow the card category as the league continues its success in the years to come," Torigoe says.

HAVING A BALL

The unparalleled uniqueness of Spalding's official AFL football simply can't be understated. It can, however, be succinctly summed up.

"It's instantly become the icon of the league," says Spalding category manager Brian Kelly. "The league's happy with it, we're happy with it and the fans absolutely love it."

What's not to love? For starters, the three-year-old, light-brown Horween leather sphere is the most visually stunning piece of equipment in all of American sports. It's adorned with a blue "S" stripe on either side, blue crosshairs on either tip and blue laces, all for the sake of the visual clarity necessary in the AFL's darkish indoor environs.

It also happens to be one of the most sought after items in the league's collectible arsenal.

"We've definitely hit a chord with the core fan, the real, true-blue AFL fan," Kelly says. "They get it, and they love it. This ball really blows the doors off in terms of in-arena sales."

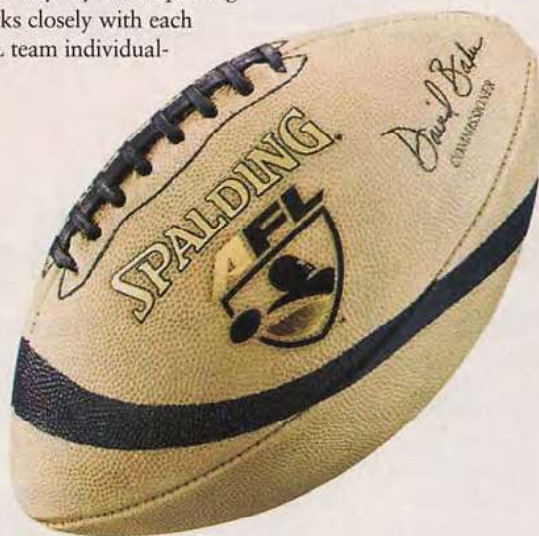

That's where most of Spalding's AFL business is conducted, inside the arenas. Kelly says that Spalding works closely with each AFL team individually to produce a variety of ball-based products, including, but not limited to, authentic game balls, replica game balls, mini game-balls and a shimmering spectacle billed as the "Under Glass ball."

For 2006, the company will honor the AFL's 20th season with a series of authentic game balls laser-engraved with the 20th season logo. In addition, Spalding will produce 20 such balls to be used in each team's home opener. Fans have to buy the collectible line; they can get the latter for free if they're lucky enough to be sitting in the right seat on game day.

Herein lies another inherent beauty of the AFL experience: Fans get to keep any ball they catch on game day (which amounts to about eight souvenirs per game), and that only adds to the considerable appeal of sports' most identifiable ball.

"Being the official ball of the AFL is very big for us," Kelly says. "Working with them and their partners to bring our name back to professional football is very important."

DOWN...SET...SCHUTT, SCHUTT

When Schutt Sports signed an exclusive four-year deal late last summer to become the AFL's official helmet and equipment provider, AFL Properties president Glenn Horine billed the union as "much more than a standard helmet agreement."

Turns out that "much more" is quite a lot.

In what is easily the most aggressive and expansive such offering in league history, Schutt will produce four distinct collectible helmet lines in 2006 incorporating all 18 AFL teams; they'll also offer a version that features the AFL logo.

"What we saw in the AFL was great potential that had not been touched and had not been cradled enough," says Mike Smith, Schutt's product and brand manager for collectibles. "The reputation of the league and the way that the players are so involved after the games was something that we really wanted to get involved with."

Indeed, one of the more appealing nuances of the AFL has always been that players are contractually obligated to sign autographs after every game. But with not much else to choose from, what's traditionally been signed is such non-traditional fodder as T-shirts and hats. With Schutt now offering a full line of collectible helmets, that should change in a big way.

Schutt's 2006 product roster will include Mini Junior ($9.99 SRP), Mini Authentic ($29.95 SRP), Full-Size Replica ($119.95 SRP) and Full-Size Authentic ($249.95 SRP) helmets.

"We're excited to be producing these items," Smith says. "In the past, AFL fans simply haven't had a chance to purchase items like this, and our expectations are that they're really going to be excited to finally be able to collect their favorite team's helmet."

"The AFL is so family oriented with affordable prices and an entertaining product, and that's our market. Our goal is to hit the fan and the family base with this collectible line."

20/20 VISION

THE 20 MOST COLLECTIBLE PLAYERS
OF THE AFL'S 20TH SEASON

MICHAEL BISHOP
QB, Chicago Rush

Record-setting former Heisman runner-up set single-season rushing mark in 2005 (459 yards) and notched league's first-ever 100-yard rushing game.

SHERDRICK BONNER
QB, Arizona Rattlers

Ranks third all time in both passing yards (32,952) and TD strikes (663); has spent entire 12-year career with Arizona.

SIANA BURLEY
OS, Utah Blaze

Explosive playmaker coming off career year in which he produced league-leading 45 TD catches.

THABITI DAVIS
WR/LB, Columbus Destroyers

Former New York Giant boasts 309 receptions, 3,382 yards and 59 TDs during three-year AFL career.

CLINT DOOLEZEL
QB, Dallas Desperados

ArenaBowl XV champ enters 11th season (first with Dallas) with 32,679 yards passing, 660 TD passes and 31 rushing touchdowns.

CORY FLEMING
WR/LB, Nashville Kats

AFL icon enters 10th season with 798 receptions, 9,658 yards and 229 TDs as well as 20 career INTs and four defensive TDs.

AARON GARCIA
QB, New York Dragons

Eleven-year vet enters 2006 ranked first all-time in TD passes (725), second all-time in passing yards (34,685).

TONY GRAZIANI
QB, Philadelphia Soul

One of league's most high-profile players has averaged 95 touchdown tosses a year since 2003.

MARK GRIEB
QB, San Jose SaberCats

Career 66.2 percent passer with 432 career TD passes led San Jose to ArenaBowl XVIII victory in 2004.

JOE HAMILTON
QB, Orlando Predators

Diminutive former Buccaneer has accounted for 132 TDs in just two seasons, including 15 rushing.

DAMIAN HARRELL
OS, Colorado Crush

Reigning AFL Offensive Player of the Year has TD reception in 49 straight games, an AFL record.

KEVIN INGRAM
WR/DB, Los Angeles Avengers

2005 U.S. Army Ironman of the Year finished with 88 catches, 1,052 yards and 23 TDs offensively; added 68 tackles and six interceptions defensively.

CHRIS JACKSON
OS, Georgia Force

Marvelous performer has averaged 98 receptions, 1,360 yards and 31 TDs during six-year career.

ANDY KELLY
QB, Kansas City Brigade

One of league's most accomplished passers enters 13th season atop AFL's all-time passing yards list (36,690).

DEREK LEE
WR/LB, Georgia Force

Massive playmaker (6-5, 215) caught 113 passes for 1,234 yards and 33 TDs as a rookie in 2005.

DAMON MASON
DS, Austin Wranglers

Dynamic defender ranks first in AFL history with 727.5 tackles, third all-time with 18 forced fumbles.

ETU MOLDEN
WR/DB, Chicago Rush

One of league's most versatile talents has scored 62 total touchdowns in just two seasons (including 10 rushing and three on special teams).

MARCUS NASH
OS, Las Vegas Gladiators

Arguably AFL's most dominant offensive force has accounted for 285 catches, 3,540 yards and 92 total TDs during last two years.

RAYMOND PHILYAW
QB, Grand Rapids Rampage

Six-year vet coming off career-year that included 67.5 completion percentage, 3,669 yards and 67 TD passes; has 29 career rushing TDs.

BOBBY SIPP
WR/DB, Tampa Bay Storm

Electric performer has scored 59 TDs four different ways in first two seasons.

THE AFL: TEAM-BY-TEAM

Arizona Rattlers

One of AFL's most venerable, successful franchises has been to five ArenaBowls, winning two.

Austin Wranglers

Third-year franchise still seeking first season above .500.

Chicago Rush

Co-owned by Bears legend Mike Ditka, perennial front-runner has ventured to post-season all five years of existence.

Colorado Crush

Defending ArenaBowl XIX champs co-owned by Broncos legend John Elway.

Columbus Destroyers

Third-year franchise looking to change fortunes after just eight wins in two seasons.

Dallas Desperados

Georgia Force

Reigning National Conference champ is preseason favorite to win ArenaBowl XX.

Grand Rapids Rampage

Have gone just 21-41 in four seasons since winning ArenaBowl XV in 2001.

Kansas City Brigade

Expansion outfit in 2006 will field a team consisting primarily of misplaced New Orleans VooDoo players.

Las Vegas Gladiators

Looking to inch above .500 following three straight 8-8 seasons.

Los Angeles Avengers

Advanced to playoffs during each of last four seasons.

Nashville Kats

Co-owned by country music superstar Tim McGraw.

New York Dragons

Have improved every year since franchise-worst 3-11 mark in 2002.

Orlando Predators

Coached by AFL Hall of Famer Jay Gruden, younger brother of the Buccaneers' Jon.

Philadelphia Soul

Boasts rock legend Jon Bon Jovi as co-owner, Eagles legend Ron Jaworski as president.

San Jose SaberCats

Two-time ArenaBowl champions last won in 2004.

Tampa Bay Storm

League's most decorated team with 15 straight postseason appearances and five ArenaBowl championships.

Utah Blaze

Expansion team in '06 coached by former Dallas Cowboys QB and AFL Hall of Famer Danny White.

* New Orleans VooDoo will not field a team in 2006 due to the effects of Hurricane Katrina.

THE BLING'S THE THING

A partnership that started as a way to introduce America's high schoolers to the myriad niceties of the AFL has graduated into something far more collectible. Jostens, the renowned jeweler that has crafted virtually every class ring you've ever seen (not to mention more than a handful of NFL Super Bowl rings) also created the Colorado Crush's ArenaBowl XIX championship hardware.

Eventually, one ring led to another and a whole new line of collectibles was born. The Jostens Colorado Crush Friends and Family Collection (www.jostens.com/crushfamily) — including such sparkling mementos as acrylic ring replicas, novelty key rings and even championship dog tags — is a unique assemblage that promises to help Crush fans remember last year's historic triumph from now on.

For the record, the official ArenaBowl XIX championship ring (retailing for a robust $2,500) is listed for sale on the site. Alas, it's available only with club approval.

IT'S IN THE GAME... FINALLY

Those who think that the production of a videogame can't qualify as a fantasy realized clearly have no idea how much pent-up demand and cult-like passion exists in the AFL fan base.

"It's almost like we're fulfilling a dream of theirs with this game," says Kendall Boyd, the marketing manager for EA Sports' 2006 Arena Football, which will hit stores in early February. "There's a core group of people out there who've wanted a quality football game made with the AFL license for quite a long time."

Thanks to EA Sports' exclusive agreement with the AFL, those people have finally gotten their wish. And by all preliminary accounts, the wait will have been well worth it.

To be sure, Arena Football 2006's bells and whistles are many, and include:

- A revolutionary telemetry system that enables gamers to gauge real-time player fatigue and in-game statistical trends
- The perpetual ability to send players into and over the AFL's trademark padded walls
- A low camera angle that gives gamers the feeling of being in the arena at field level
- All 18 2006 AFL teams (with rosters updated through late November), including expansion franchises Utah and Kansas City
- The ability to unlock 35 historical AFL teams, including the New Orleans VooDoo and a special Champs team
- Multiple roster downloads to allow gamers to update their teams as the season progresses

"When we first set out to develop this game, we wanted to make sure, at the end of the day, that we made something that was truly authentic to Arena Football and to AFL fans," Boyd says. "One of the great things about Arena Football is that, in real life, it plays like an arcade game. It lends itself easily to an arcade game."

It also lends itself easily to untold new growth opportunities.

"For the younger fan, the EA Sports game is the equivalent of a network-television agreement," says Commissioner Baker. "You almost can't be viewed as a major league if you don't have a video game. We view it as an incredible educational tool that can introduce the game to an entire fan base that has yet to be exposed to the AFL. It's also a great vehicle to promote our players. It certainly ranks as one of the most significant licensing partnerships in our history."

HOUSE RULES

A CRASH COURSE ON SOME OF THE AFL'S MORE UNIQUE INTRICACIES

Live Ball

Any pass or kick that deflects off the nets at the back of each end zone is live.

No Punts

Offenses have four downs to gain a first down (10 yards), score a touchdown or attempt a field goal.

Live Walls

The 48-inch-high, densely padded walls lining the field are in play, and endure plenty of action just feet from the nearest spectators.

Crazy Eights

The AFL's eight-on-eight format requires four offensive players on the line of scrimmage and three down linemen on defense. Only one linebacker may blitz on each play.

Quick Pace

The AFL plays four 15-minute quarters, but the clock stops only after extra-point attempts and change of possession. In the last minute of each half, the clock stops on incompletions.

Double Duty

With the exception of the quarterback, offensive specialist, two defensive specialists and kicker, AFL athletes must play both ways.

Small Pitch

The playing field is 50 yards long and 85-feet wide with eight-yard end zones; goalposts are nine-feet wide with 15-foot-high crossbars.

Loco-Motion

One receiver can go in motion toward the line of scrimmage before the snap of the football.

Collecting Stampede

The other Colts who should be in your collection By David Lee

You know all about Peyton Manning – the super-sized stats, the thousands of cards. But what about his teammates? Who are the other players who make up 2005's best team?

We'll look at 10 "other" Colts who deserve some collecting consideration and highlight their top Rookie Cards, autographs and bargain buys. We'll also look at the history of Manning's best card – the autographed 1998 Playoff Contenders Ticket #87, as it has reached a record $2,500 this month.

Edgerrin James, RB

Total No. of Cards
3,019

Years With the Colts: 7

The Edge finished the year with his fourth 1,500-yard season. His 13 rushing TDs matched his career high. His Rookie Cards saw some resurgence, but most are still undervalued for a guy who's nearing 10,000 yards for his career.

RC to Grab: 1999 SPx AU RC #124 ($75-$135)

Cool Autograph: 2000 Donruss Elite Passing the Torch Autographs G.Sayers/E.James #PT18 ($125-$250)

Bargain Card: 1999 Topps Chrome RC #145 ($10-$20)

Dallas Clark, TE

Total No. of Cards
323

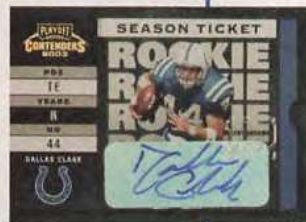

Years With the Colts: 3

Manning's weapons seem to never end. Clark had 37 catches for 488 yards and four TDs this season. He's surprisingly agile and is a terrific runner with the ball. He's the type of player who could be the surprise hero through the playoffs. All of Clark's 2003 Rookie Cards are priced no more than $30. Some autographs can be found for about $20.

RC to Grab: 2003 SPx JSY AU RC #196 ($15-$40)

Cool Autograph: 2003 Topps Rookie Premiere Autographs #RPDC ($40-$80)

Bargain Card: 2003 Playoff Contenders AU/539 RC #150 ($750-$20)

Marvin Harrison, WR

Total No. of Cards
2,916

Years With the Colts: 10

Harrison's seventh consecutive 1,000-yard season put him in the top 10 in all-time receiving yards. His 12 TDs this season put him third on the all-time TD list behind Jerry Rice and Cris Carter. Manning and Harrison also became the top passing TD duo in NFL history this season. Simply put, he's one of the greatest players in the history of the game. But for some weird reason, he just doesn't get the respect he deserves in the hobby. None of his 1996 RCs are priced over $30. However, two of his RCs did make the Hot List this month.

RC to Grab: 1996 Topps Chrome RC #156 ($15-$30)

Cool Autograph: 2005 Topps 50th Anniversary Team Autographs #TAMH ($125-$250)

Bargain Card: Any Rookie Card

Dwight Freeney, DE

Total No. of Cards
307

Years With the Colts: 4

Freeney made a super rare appearance on the Hot List in December when his Playoff Contenders RC bumped up to $60. He finished the season with 11 sacks while seeing plenty of double teams. Freeney led a revamped Colts defense that finished second in scoring, allowing just 15.4 points per game. Freeney's RCs are still fairly hot, but also still affordable.

RC to Grab: 2002 Playoff Contenders AU/410 RC #128 ($35.00 $60)

Cool Autograph: 2002 Bowman Chrome AU RC #227 ($15-$30)

Bargain Card: 2002 Topps Chrome RC #171 ($5-$12)

Reggie Wayne, WR

Total No. of Cards
820

Years With the Colts: 5

Wayne has become a legitimate threat for the Colts. Defenses can no longer worry just about Harrison or gang up on James. He posted his second 1,000-yard season this year and led the team in catches (one more than Harrison). All of his RCs can be found for less than $100.

RC to Grab: 2001 SP Authentic JSY RC #105 ($40-$80)

Cool Autograph: 2001 Bowman Chrome Autographs #BCRW ($50-$100)

Bargain Card: 2001 Fleer Genuine JSY RC #133 ($750-$20)

Bob Sanders, FS

Total No. of Cards
55

Years With the Colts: 2

The surprise Colts player of the year, Sanders went from obscurity to having one of the hobby's hottest cards. His 2004 Bowman's Best RC (his only autograph) has sold for well over high book value during the last month. Note the two signature versions: "Bob 21" and the full signature. Other RCs can be found for no more than $20. His tenacious style has brought a new attitude to the Colts' defense. You can bet that Sanders will have plenty of cards next year.

RC to Grab: 2004 Bowman's Best AU RC #185 ($25-$40)

Bargain Card: 2004 Donruss Elite #109 ($5-$12)

Brandon Stokley, WR

Total No. of Cards
242

Years With the Colts: 3

Being the third receiver on any other team would equal hobby obscurity. But Manning can make any receiver worth collecting. Stokley was the third Colts receiver to reach 1,000 yards and 10 TDs last year. Although he only had 543 yards this year, Stokley is still a shifty, speedy threat in the NFL's best offense.

RC to Grab: 1999 Playoff Contenders SSD AU/1325 RC #148 ($15-$30)

Cool Autograph: 2004 Topps Autographs #TBS ($15-$30)

Bargain Card: 1999 Playoff Momentum SSD RC #188 ($250-$6)

Mike Doss, SS

Total No. of Cards
122

Years With the Colts: 3

Doss has been starting at safety since his rookie season in 2003. He totaled 77 tackles and two interceptions this season. He was the leader of the terrific Ohio State defense that won a National Championship in 2002. The Colts have a smart leader in the defensive backfield. All of Doss' Rookie Cards can be found for no more than $20.

RC to Grab: 2003 Playoff Contenders AU/574 RC #111 ($750-$20)

Bargain Card: 2003 Press Pass Autographs Bronze #14 ($6-$15)

Robert Mathis, DE

Years With the Colts: 3

Total No. of Cards
14

Freeman gets all the attention and double teams, but Mathis had 11.5 sacks this season and had an NFL-high eight forced fumbles. He's been with the Colts since 2003 and has 25.5 sacks during that time. Mathis did not have a card until this year, including two Rookie Cards in Score and Topps Total.

RC to Grab: 2005 Score RC #126 ($0.40-$1)

Bargain Card: Any Card

Marlin Jackson, CB

Years With the Colts: 1

Total No. of Cards
237

The hard-hitting rookie cornerback from Michigan had 58 tackles this season. He should be the starter next year. Jackson has plenty of autograph cards to choose from, most of which can be found in the $20 range. The Upper Deck Foundations (pictured) is a great deal at $5-$12.

RC to Grab: 2005 Upper Deck Foundations AU/699 RC #208 ($5-$12)

The Rise of the Manning Playoff Contenders

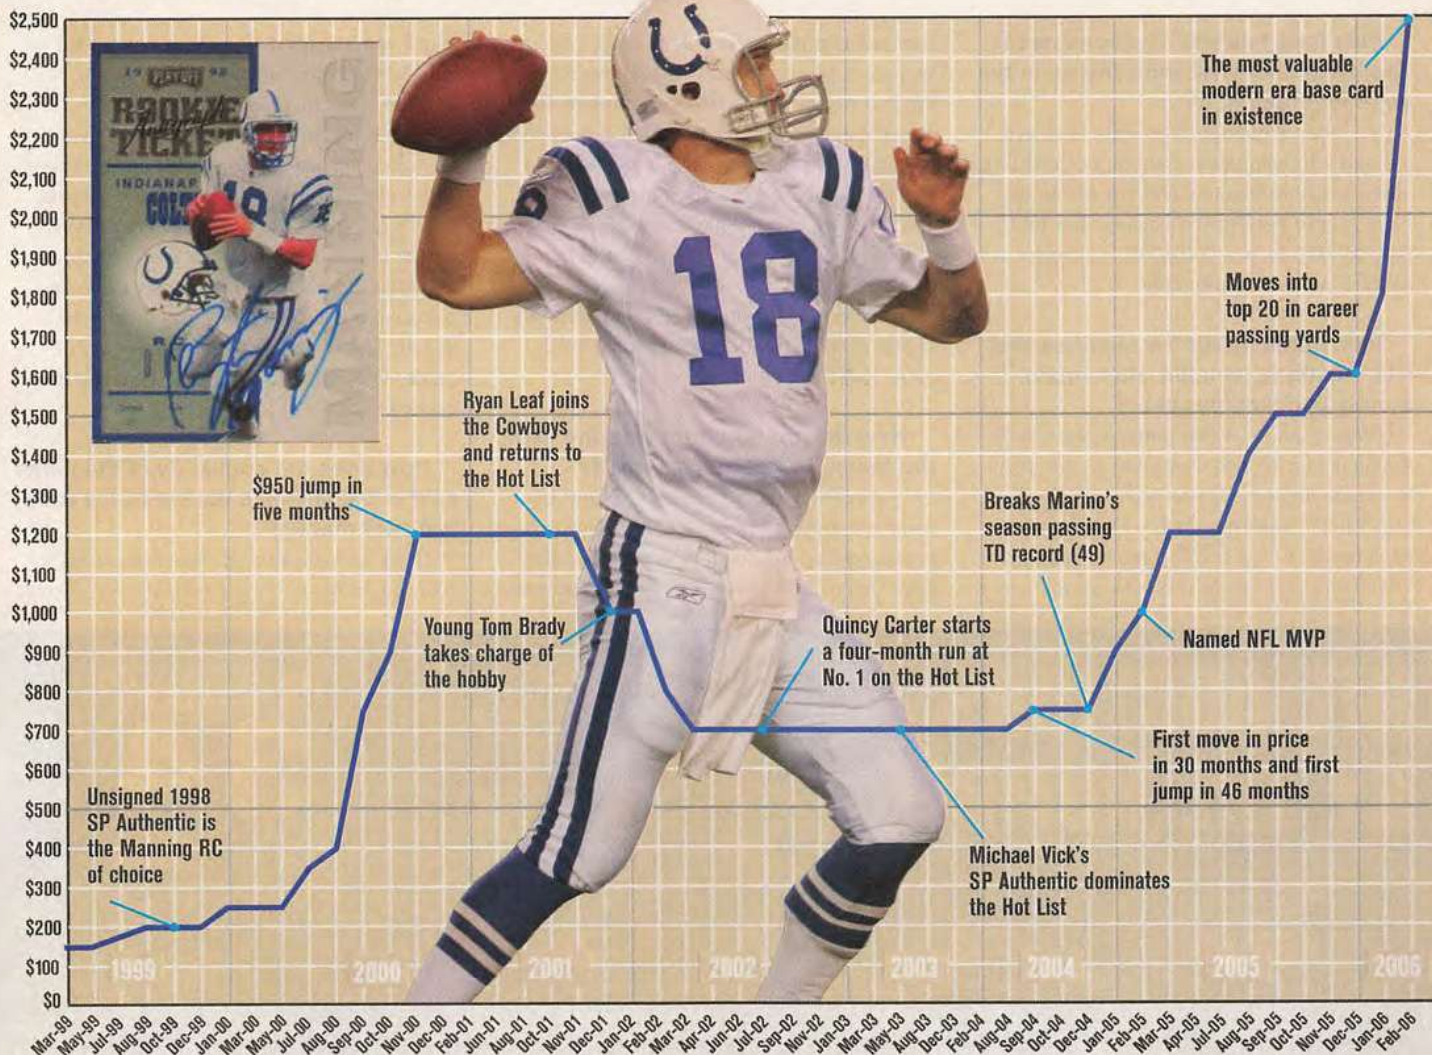

This time last year we were touting that Peyton Manning's 1998 Playoff Contenders was reaching $1,000. A year later, it's more than doubled that price. Now at $2,500, it's the third most valuable base set football card in history behind only the 1935 Bronko Nagurski and the 1952 Jim Lansford.

Since it released in early 1999, it has become a true landmark card. It has moved up in value 16 times (down three times) and appeared in the Hot List top five five times. The chart below tracks its volatile history as it's traveled through Manning's Hall-of-Fame career.

BETTER TO GIVE

In five years, NFL Auctions has grown into one of the most trusted sources for signed and game-used items in the sports memorabilia industry, while at the same time raised millions for charities.

As Uncle Ben once told Peter Parker before he would become Spider-Man, "with great power comes great responsibility." Like a modern-day Roman Empire, the sun never sets on the NFL. It has become a juggernaut of marketing and merchandising.

Yet, with all of its great power, you'll always find the NFL giving back in countless ways to countless charities. NFL Auctions is fast becoming one of the league's best instruments for raising charitable money. At the same time, the program is providing fans and collectors the opportunity to purchase unique items that only the NFL can provide.

How long has NFL Auctions been operating and what were the main reasons for creating it?

"It's been around for five years now. We created it to help raise funds for our various member clubs' charities. We wanted to do more to give back to the communities that support NFL teams, and so far it's been a very fun and successful program."

Talk a little about the charities that NFL Auctions benefits. How much money is raised per year?

"Well, each team that participates in NFL Auctions has its own charitable organizations to donate its proceeds to. Most of these organizations and groups are located near each team's home city. The money brought in from items listed under the NFL category is donated to a particular charity selected at the beginning of each year. This year, we're donating that money to the Hurricane Katrina Relief. Those items are obtained at NFL events such as the Rookie Premiere where we have the rookies sign NFL panel footballs or helmets. That way, we can get multiple players to sign certain items to create very unique collectibles.

"During the first year of NFL auctions, we raised about $200,000. Last year we did close to $1.3 million."

How do you go about working with the teams to get items signed?

"Pretty much every team participates, but there are about 13 teams that are very involved in helping us get items for the auctions. The Bills, Dolphins, Broncos, Vikings, Chargers and Signed helmets, footballs, game-worn jerseys, pants, gloves and shoes are just some of the collectibles selling every week. NFL Auctions is now branching out, selling "experiences," such as trips to the Pro Bowl and the opportunity to play professional photographer at an NFL game. Such an experience was sold in December and it allowed the winner to stand on the sideline as a credentialed photographer and snap shots of the Miami-New England game.

We caught up the Pete Quaglierini and Scott Miller of NFL Auctions to talk about the success of the program and where it's headed in the future.

Bears come to mind. They have been great to work with. Of course, we'd love to get more involved with other teams in the future.

"The signings we do are set up by each team's community relations department. They set everything up and we go out and witness every signing. We'll get a few hundred items signed to use throughout the year. Before we make the trip, we'll ask them to set aside any game-worn equipment they may be able to donate. Occasionally, the players will sign game-worn jerseys or helmets. Those are the coolest items."

How does the popularity of the items sold in the auctions equate to the football card market?

"They go hand-in-hand. Take the rookies for instance. Some of the signed items we've sold of the 2005 first-round draft picks have gone for $500-$1,000. We sold a Cadillac Williams signed football recently that went very high. At the same time, you have some of his cards going for $100-$200. Collectors and fans like to get their hands on rookies who sign a bunch now and blossom within the next year or two.

"We also see trends when certain teams get hot and we sell more of their items. For example, Bears stuff has really sold well lately."

What does NFL Auctions offer that no one else can?

"Fans and collectors are going to find the highest level authenticity with NFL Auctions. We don't sell anything that we don't personally witness. We see everything being signed.

"NFL Auctions also has access to game-used and game day memorabilia that no one else has. Just about all of the items we get are directly from the teams. Some even still have dirt and grass stains.

"We also offer items within a wide price range, from signed mini-football to signed game-worn jerseys. With our level of authenticity and our partnership with PSA/DNA, a lot of our items will sell for double or triple what other similar items sell for. Collectors know that they're buying something authentic and directly from the NFL."

What are some of the coolest items that sold this season?

"We got the Chargers throwback uniforms from a game this season and those have been great sellers. We sold LaDainian Tomlinson's pants that had grass stains all over it. We sold Terrell Davis' locker from the Broncos' practice facility. The Bears and Rams have been great about doing a lot of team-signed items for us.

"We got all of the black alternate jerseys that the Ravens wore when they beat Green Bay on Monday Night Football. They sold for an average of about $1,500 each."

How is NFL Auctions being publicized to reach the average NFL fan?

"Each participating team publicizes the auc-

Jake Plummer signed panel football

tions on their websites and in their game day programs. We also have an auction segment running on NFL Total Access on NFL Network."

You guys always have some cool stuff on display at the Super Bowl Card Show every year. What will we see in Detroit this year?

"We'll have our live auction going on and we'll have plenty of cool stuff for fans to check out. We have Eli Manning's rookie-year helmet, a Dan Marino gamer, a Jake Plummer gamer, a pair of Derrick Brooks game-worn shoes and the throwback helmets and jerseys worn by LaDainian Tomlinson and Antonio Gates this season, among other things."

What can we expect from NFL Auctions in the near future?

"We're always trying to get more teams involved, but we're very proud of how we've grown over the past five years. You're going to see more experiences being auctioned off, such as trips to the Pro Bowl, conference championship games and even photographer experiences that allow you to stand on the sidelines of a game and snap pictures just like a professional photographer!

"Unique experiences like that are what we're pushing for in the future. Something that you're only going to get from the NFL."

Dan	179 different Rookie Cards!	I could live without the excessive insert parallels.
David	Pulling 31 Rookie Cards will always get a big thumbs up from me!	Can we get a new base set design...PLEASE!? The bars and lines theme is way overdone.
Brian	A Rookie Card gold mine for prospectors.	The base set design that looks almost identical to 2003 and 2004 is a major give-up.
Guest Reviewer: Jason Deltona, Fla.	Investment potential with the vast array of rookies and jersey RCs of the higher picks.	Too many high numbered inserts...A good portion of the rookies will never play a down in the pros.

Dan	Solid Legendary Contenders Autographs lineup.	The "ticket" theme and design is wearing thin.
David	Not numbering the Rookie Tickets was a great move – it adds mystery until we find out just how many are out there.	Inserts look nice, but the themes are getting old.
Brian	An average of four autographs per box is great, even if a couple spares are in the mix.	I'm with Dan. The "ticket" design reminds me of Fleer Authentix...and that's not a good thing.

Dan	I still like the signed mini helmet concept.	Cards nearly 1/4-inch thick do not belong in a base set.
David	More than 40 dual autographs have some sweet combos.	You're probably going to pull a lot of rookies you've never heard of before.
Brian	A lot of autographs, no low serial numbered parallels and inserts, and only one game-used set.	Insanely thick signature helmet cards. How am I supposed to store and protect these?
Guest Reviewer: jamuser304	Smearred autographs seemed to have diminished this year, and the Sweet Swatches jersey set has a clean and classy design.	Lots of lower-end names in the base rookie autograph set, and too many packs yielding nothing but base.

Dan	Love the clean look and on-card 'graphs of the signed insert sets.	The Patch Rookie Cards are way too thick.
David	All autographs are on the cards and the product wasn't delayed a bit! Great job Upper Deck!	We pulled just one rookie patch autograph out of four boxes, and it was Vernand "checkmark" Morency...uuhhh!
Brian	On-card autographs (and a lot of them!) in a mid-level priced product? I never thought I'd see the day.	Vernand Morency shouldn't have another certified autographed card until he improves his signature.

PREVIEWS

2005 Donruss Gridiron Gear

DUE: February 8

BASE SET: 100 cards including 50 Rookies

BOX: Contains 18 packs, 5 cards per pack. $6 SRP/pack

NEED TO KNOW:

Packers rookie RB Samkon Gado will have a Rookie Card in the base set.

AUTOGRAPHS: The base set will have an autograph parallel with cards being numbered to different quantities. Past and Present will feature a college and NFL jersey swatch of a player with an autograph. Next Generation will have two patch pieces from a player's nameplate and jersey number along with an autograph.

MEMORABILIA: In addition to the sets mentioned above, the Performers set is a lot like Next Generation in that it features two patch swatches.

Team collectors should like the Triplets cards with jersey swatches of three teammates. Patch versions will be numbered to 50. Pro Bowl Squad offers two patches from Pro Bowl-worn uniforms.

A CLOSER LOOK: Gridiron Gear is a new offering from Donruss/Playoff that looks like a mix of Leaf Certified Materials and Throwback Threads. There should be plenty of patch cards. Each box is scheduled to include a combination of three memorabilia or autograph cards.

MARKET WATCH

INSIDE THE HOT LIST

This month's Hot List is quite different from any we've seen in years. There are no current-year rookies on the list and loads of guys from the 1990s. While the 2005 rookie class appears to still be a solid one, the guys who were all over the list early in the season – Cadillac Williams, Ronnie Brown and Mike Williams – have taken a backseat to some wily '90s veterans like Peyton Manning, Tiki Barber and Marvin Harrison. Manning is absolutely scorching. That's a little tough to imagine since his cards were so hot last year after he set a single-season touchdown mark.

At that time, most of his RCs and signed cards saw increases in value that had many of us believing they couldn't go much higher – not the case. Check out the 1998 Playoff Contenders Ticket autograph. It jumped a whopping $700 this month, shattering the $2,000 barrier. It's the first mainstream ungraded modern era card to pass $2,000, with the exception of a few extremely low print run autographs and cut autos.

Of the remaining youngsters, Larry Johnson had the biggest impact on the list with five cards (25 percent of the list). While his cards may no longer be as hot in several weeks when the playoffs are over and Johnson's incredible season will be temporarily forgotten, he should remain a great seller. Consider the second half of 2005 when he rushed for 1,244 yards and scored 14 rushing TDs. That's one of the greatest half-seasons in the history of the league. Johnson should be back in prime form next season, even without Dick Vermeil at the helm. The team has built a great foundation on both sides of the ball and expects to sign Herm Edwards as the new head coach. That should put the Chiefs squarely in the 2006 playoff hunt.

HOBBY RADAR PLAYERS ON THE VERGE OF BREAKING OUT

Clinton Portis: Portis has surpassed 1,300 rushing yards in each of his first four full seasons in the NFL, three times eclipsing the 1,500-yard mark. During the Redskins five-game winning streak to finish the regular season, he averaged 114.6 yards per game and scored six TDs.

While his cards are moderately priced, Portis has yet to really catch fire. A Redskins run through the playoffs should definitely change that. A couple of Portis' autograph cards were raised this month, but most sales continue to hover around low book value. His 2002 Playoff Contenders AU/360 ($200) is his top RC and could have a spot on next month's Hot List.

Mark Brunell: He may be old, but Mark Brunell is far from being washed up. He led the Redskins down the stretch, helping them win their last five regular season games and earning an NFC Wildcard bid. His RCs remain unchanged, but his 2000 Upper Deck Legends Autographs was given the up arrow treatment this month. Keep an eye on his 1993 SP RC. Depending on how the 'Skins do in the playoffs, it may start to get hot.

Warrick Dunn: With the Falcons eliminated from the playoffs, it's going to be hard for Dunn to heat up. Considering he rushed for over 1,400 yards this season, it's hard to believe that he didn't make an appearance on the Hot List. His 1997 SP Authentic RC is still affordably priced at $20, with most eBay sales hovering around the low book value of $7.50.

Chris Simms: When Chris Simms stepped in for an injured Brian Griese in Week 6, many NFL experts declared the then 5-1 Buccaneers finished. Simms has been solid, going 6-4 as a starter and leading the Buccaneers to an NFC Wildcard. Simms has started to heat up, as bidding is starting to pick up on several of his key RCs. His 2003 Playoff Contenders AU/389 is now valued at $80 (up from $60) and the LO range on his 2003 Ultimate Collection was raised from $40 to $50. Keep an eye on his 2003 SP Authentic AU/250 ($150) and 2003 Sweet Spot AU RC ($40) – both have been extremely strong sellers.

Tom Brady: Surprisingly, Tom Brady is not that hot. Compared to other years at this time when he was scorching, the Patriots 10-6 record this year seems to have underwhelmed collectors who have high expectations for the golden-armed Brady. His Rookie Cards and certified autographs are solid, but a return trip to the Super Bowl will quickly launch Brady's card-board back in the hobby stratosphere.

Thomas Jones: Perhaps it's because Cedric Benson is waiting in the wings or maybe it's the Bears' lackluster offensive attack, but Thomas Jones is barely registering on the hobby radar. While his RCs remain unchanged, several of his certified autographs were raised this month, most notably his 2000 Topps Rookie Premiere Autographs, which was raised this month from $150 to $250. His 2000 SP Authentic and 2000 Bowman Chrome RCs, both priced at $40, should start to heat up if the Bears do well in the playoffs.

Jake Plummer: Plummer led the Broncos to a 13-3 record this season and a first round bye in the playoffs, yet he remains lukewarm in the hobby. The low book value on his key RC, 1997 SP Authentic, was bumped up from $10 to $12.50. If the Broncos end up in Detroit at the end of the year, his 1997 SP Authentic will almost definitely be a candidate for Hot List honors.

TIKI 'GRAPHS

Collectors began jumping on the Tiki Barber bandwagon after a breakout 2004 season that saw the running back score 15 touchdowns. After a monster 1,860-yard 2005 season leading the Giants back into the Playoffs, collectors are piling on that wagon.

Cards they're have trouble locating are Barber autographs issued prior to 2004. That's because there just aren't many.

Barber really didn't like signing early in his career and manufacturers were a little reluctant to include him later on after he slipped in popularity. While he's signed 28 different cards the past two years, only five Barber autographs were issued prior to 2004:

- 1997 Leaf Signature Autographs/4000 #9 ($20-$40)
- 1997 Leaf Signature Autographs First Down Markers/100 #9 ($30-$80)
- 1997 Genuine Article Autographs #3 ($10-$25)
- 1998 Collector's Edge First Place Rookie Ink #6 ($15-$30)
- 1998 Collector's Edge First Place Rookie Ink Red Ink/50 #6 ($30-$80)

Vince Young's Texas Cards Spike After Rose Bowl Victory

The nation watched Vince Young turn the Rose Bowl into his playground on Jan. 4 as he led the Texas Longhorns to a 41-38 victory over the two-time defending national champion USC Trojans. The junior quarterback finished the game with 467 total yards and three rushing TDs, including the game winner with 19 seconds left on the clock. If he decides to enter the draft, he likely would be a top five pick at this point.

While a quick search on eBay reveals a variety of Young cards on the market, only three have the licensing and/or the distribution to be considered legitimate collectibles. Two are from University of Texas team sets issued directly by the school in 2004 and 2005 and the third card was released through Sports Illustrated for Kids this past fall. Any of the three could have been picked up for less than $10 a week before the Rose Bowl, but after Young's incredible performance in the game, prices quickly shot up to $20-$30 on single copies of the Texas cards and $10-$15 on the SI for Kids card.

TOP 5 PRODUCTS

Product of the Month!

2005 Playoff Contenders:

The always highly anticipated 2005 Playoff

Contenders went live just before our deadline, and eBay bidding wars have already broken out over the autographed Rookie Tickets. On average, boxes have been delivering four 'graphs. You won't find any boring white jersey swatches, but you will find the ever popular Legendary Contenders Autographs, MVP Contenders Autographs, ROY Contenders Autographs and Round Numbers Autographs. Bo Jackson, Don Meredith, Brett Favre, Ben Roethlisberger, and Michael Vick, among others, have all signed cards in the product and have collectors busting box after box.

2. 2005 SP Authentic: Like Contenders, 2005 SP Authentic went live just before our deadline. From the looks of early eBay sales, the autographed rookie patch cards are as popular as ever. Several examples of the top rookies have sold for triple digits, including a beautiful Carnell Williams three-color patch that garnered 26 and sold for $550. Perhaps the best part about the product: all of the autographs, even the Scripts for Success and Sign of the Times, are on the card. Not only do they look better than the usual sticker autographs, early sales indicate that they are going to be stronger sellers.

3. 2005 Sweet Spot: A lot of people collect autographed mini-helmets. In 2003, Upper Deck incorporated signed plastic helmet pieces into the Sweet Spot brand. They're back in 2005 Sweet Spot and have been selling extremely well. Past issues of scratched helmets and smudged autographs seem to have been resolved and collectors have responded by opening their wallets.

4. 2005 Leaf Limited: Despite being released over a month ago, the high-end 2005 Leaf Limited is still going strong. The Letterman cards continue to be the product's best seller, with most selling in the $300-$700 range. The many low serial numbered, dual autographed cards have also been strong sellers.

5. Topps All American: On Dec. 27, Topps released the print run numbers for the All-American Autographs short prints (check them out on page 9) and not surprisingly, sales started to double and triple on eBay. Despite there being only four Barry Sanders autographs, it seems like many collectors are still doing their best to complete the 91 card set.

HOT STUFF

1 Peyton Manning Rookie Cards and Autographs

His high-end RCs suddenly took off, and even with a ton of autographs flooding the market, Manning's sig is as hot as ever.

2 Shaun Alexander Cards

The 2005 NFL MVP is still selling strong. Perhaps a Super Bowl win would send his cards through the roof.

3 2005 Playoff Contenders AU RCs

They're finally here. The top rookies, especially Cadillac Williams, are very strong.

4 2005 SP Authentic JSY AU RCs

These RCs look a lot like last year's, but they have on-card 'graphs and beautiful patches.

5 Larry Johnson Cards

He finished the season with nine-straight 100-yard games and is the top breakout player of 2005.

6 Tiki Barber Rookie Cards and Autographs

Underrated Tiki Barber is finally getting his due. Autographs are quickly on the rise.

7 2005 Topps All-American Autos Short Prints

Once the print runs were released the SPs skyrocketed. Watch for them to move up for several months.

8 Shawne Merriman Cards

The Defensive Rookie of the Year has lived up to his nickname, "Lights Out."

9 Carson Palmer Rookie Cards

His popularity is starting to affect his lower-end RCs as well as his higher-end stuff.

10 Marvin Harrison Rookie Cards

One of the greatest receivers of all time can still be had for peanuts, but his cards are on the move.

CARD PRICE GUIDE

THE WORLD'S MOST TRUSTED SOURCE IN COLLECTING.

HOW TO USE AND CONDITION GUIDE

What's Listed

The amount of material available to the card collector today is vast and the market complex. This monthly Beckett Price Guide focuses on the most actively traded and historically important cards. In particular, hot single cards and brand new releases command the spotlight. For a more comprehensive Price Guide see our sister publication Beckett Football Card Plus or check Beckett.com for pricing on virtually every football card ever issued.

What the Columns Mean

The LO and HI columns reflect a range of current retail selling prices and are listed in U.S. dollars. The HI column represents the typical full retail selling price while the LO column represents the lowest price one could expect to find through extensive shopping. Both columns represent the same condition for the card listed. Many modern era insert cards are too thinly traded to establish a consistent HI/LO price. Pricing information for those scarce cards will be reported as it becomes available in the form of "hand blurbs" within the set listing or sidebar pricing content in the Price Guide. Keep in mind that market conditions can change quickly up or down based on extreme levels of demand. The published HI and LO column prices in this issue are a single snapshot in time and cannot be exact for every card listed.

What the Arrows Mean

Up arrows denote prices that went up since the last issue. Down arrows denote prices that went down since the last issue. Arrows don't mean a card or set is "going up" or "going down."

Only a Reference

The data and pricing information contained within this publication is intended for reference only and is not to be used as an endorsement of any specific product(s) or as a recommendation to buy or sell any product(s). Beckett's goal is to provide the most accurate and verifiable information in the industry. However, Beckett cannot guarantee the accuracy of all data published. Typographical errors occasionally occur and unverifiable information may reach print from time to time. Buyers and sellers of sports collectibles should be aware of this and handle their personal transactions at their own risk. If you discover an error or misprint in this issue, please notify us via email at footballmag@beckett.com.

Multipliers

Some parallel sets and lightly traded insert sets are listed with multipliers to provide values of unlisted cards. Multiplier ranges (i.e. 10X to 20X HI) apply only to the HI column. Example: If basic-issue card A lists for 20 to 50 cents, and the multiplier is "20X to 40X HI", then the parallel version of card A or the insert card in question is valued at $10 to $20. Please note the term "basic card" used in the Price Guide refers to a player's standard regular-issue card. A "basic card" cannot be an insert or parallel card.

Stated Odds and Print Runs

Odds of pulling insert cards are often listed as a ratio (1:12 = one in 12 packs). If the odds vary by pack type, they are generally listed separately. Stated print runs are also included in the set header lines or after the player's name for many serial numbered cards or for sets which the manufacturer has chosen to announce print runs. Stated odds and print runs are provided by the manufacturer based on the entire print run and should be considered very close estimates and not exact figures. The data provided in this issue has been verified by Beckett to the best of our ability. Neither stated odds nor print runs should be viewed as a guarantee by either Beckett Publications or the manufacturer.

Card Condition

The value of your card is dependent on the condition or "grade" of your card. Prices in this issue reflect the highest raw condition (i.e. not professionally graded by a third party) of the card most commonly found at shows, shops, on the internet, and right out of the pack for brand new releases. This generally means Near Mint-Mint condition for modern era cards. Space constraints prevent a complete guide to grading your card from being printed here. However, please see Beckett.com for specific information on how to assess the condition or grade of your card. Use the following chart as a guide to estimate the value of your cards in a variety of conditions using the prices found in this issue.

I'm a proponent of photo matching, with the caveat that it's done carefully. It's of my humble, albeit professional, opinion that there are two distinct types of photo matches. These two match types would be described as "style" matches and "exact" matches.

For an exact photo match, there needs to be marks, stains, rips or repairs on the uniform that can be unequivocally noted in an image of the player wearing the same uniform. Also, anomalies like a nameplate or commemorative patch being sewn on slightly askew may be a unique enough occurrence that it may allow for an exact photo match. Uniform styling and tailoring alone do not constitute an exact photo match. A player will most likely have worn multiple uniforms with the same tailoring and styling during a single season. An exact photo match is a unique one-to-one comparison and confirmation.

Comparing fonts, sleeves and tailoring in an image with those on a jersey are terrific for confirming that it's lettered, numbered and cut correctly. However, those attributes alone do not constitute an exact photo match. The type of match where fonts and tailoring are correct – sans unique and distinctive blemishes – would be what I call a style match. In a nutshell, you have determined that letters, numbers and tailoring on a uniform are consistent with those in an image, but it is not possible to make an exact match because the unique blemishes are not visible in the image or they are absent from your item.

An issue that can muddy the photo matching waters is that camera angles and flashes can sometimes distort the appearance of numerals and letters. A player's movement can bend, twist and ripple numerals and letters, especially if they are screened on as opposed to sewn tackle-twill. Further complicating matters is that blemishes, such as repairs and small rips, are often difficult if not impossible to see in photos.

Exact photo matching would be simple if pro and college athletes wore only one of each color uniform in a season. Indeed, if a player is active for only a part of the season, it is entirely possible that he may have only worn one per color. However, if a player is active for the majority or entirety of a season, he will have potentially worn multiple of each home, road and alternate uniform. That is why those marks, rips, repairs or human error in the adornments of the uniform are mandatory for an exact photo match. Those blemishes or anomalies are unique to that particular uniform piece and can serve as its "DNA" so to speak.

I have encountered collectors who believed that they had an exact match merely because the letters, numbers, sleeves, collars and tailoring were correct. Unless you can match blemishes or anomalies as described previously, or unless you know for sure that a player wore only one of a particular color jersey during a specific season, you don't have an unequivocal, exact match.

BECKETT FOOTBALL REPORT CARD

WIN A BOX OF 2005 PLAYOFF CONTENDERS!

Complete and return this survey for your chance to WIN!

Just fill in the magazine "Report Card" and survey, complete the entry form and send it in to us for your chance to win. One winner will be drawn from all eligible entries received.

REPORT CARD

Tell us what you think of Beckett Football. Give a number grade (1 = I like it, I love it, I want some more of it; 2 = It's OK; not spectacular but worth reading; 3 = Hate it. Hate it. Hate it. Get rid of it immediately) for each column, department or feature listed. If you grade any section a 3, please tell us why with a brief explanation on a separate sheet of paper. After you've graded the magazine, please answer the few questions below and send the entire page (or a photocopy) in for your chance to win!

NO PURCHASE NECESSARY. OPEN ONLY TO LEGAL RESIDENTS OF THE 50 UNITED STATES AND THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA AND CANADA (EXCLUDING QUEBEC), VOID WHERE PROHIBITED BY LAW.

1. TO ENTER: Sweepstakes begins January 25, 2006, and ends March 15, 2006. To enter, fully complete an Official Entry Form or, on a 3"x5" index card, hand print your name, address, city, state, zip code, daytime telephone number, and e-mail address (if any). Mail your entry to Beckett Football Report Card #191, 15850 Dallas Parkway, Dallas, TX 75248. Each entry must be postmarked by March 15, 2006, and received by March 22, 2006. Limit one entry per person and one entry per mailing envelope. Mechanically reproduced or photocopied entries will be accepted. Sponsor is not responsible for lost, late, misdirected, damaged, illegible, incomplete, inaccurate or postage-due entries or mail. Entries become the property of Sponsor and will not be returned.

2. ELIGIBILITY: Open only to legal residents of the 50 United States and the District of Columbia and Canada (excluding Quebec). Employees of Sponsor, its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates, and members of such employees' households and immediate families, are not eligible to enter. Void where prohibited or restricted by law. Subject to all applicable federal, state, local and provincial laws and regulations.

3. SELECTION AND NOTIFICATION OF WINNERS: One winner will be selected in a random drawing on or about March 22, 2006, from all eligible entries received. Odds of winning depend on number of eligible entries received. Winners are subject to verification. Potential winner will be notified by mail and/or phone, at Sponsor's discretion, and may be required to execute and return to Sponsor an Affidavit of Eligibility and Liability/Publisher Release within 14 days of the date notice is sent or such other date set by Sponsor, unless prohibited by law. Failure to execute and return the required documents within specified time period, or return of prize verification or prize as undeliverable, will result in forfeiture of prize and Sponsor may award the prize to an alternate winner. If potential winner is a minor under the laws of his or her state of residency, the winner's parent or legal guardian will be required to execute the Affidavit and Release. If winner is a resident of Canada, he or she must answer an unsolicited arithmetic skill-testing question as a condition of receiving a prize.

4. PRIZES: The Grand Prize consists of a box of 2005 Playoff Contenders. The approximate retail value ("ARV") of the prize is $125. No prize substitution or cash redemption by winner allowed. Prize is not transferable. Sponsor reserves the right in its sole discretion to substitute a prize of equal or greater value. All prizes will be awarded if properly claimed. Prizes consist only of items expressly specified in these rules. All other costs involved in the acceptance or use of prize, including without limitation any taxes on prize value, are the responsibility of the winner.

5. GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS: By entering this sweepstakes, each entrant agrees to be bound by these Official Rules and Sponsor's decisions, which are final and binding in all respects. Sponsor and its affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies and advertising and promotion agencies are not responsible for any typographical, production, printing, distribution or other errors in connection with the sweepstakes and may read, cancel or revoke this drawing in the event of any such error without liability and at its sole discretion. By entering, entrants release and hold Sponsor and its affiliates, subsidiaries and parent companies and advertising and promotion agencies, and each of their directors, officers, employees, agents and assigns, harmless from and against any and all claims and liability arising out of participation in the sweepstakes or the acceptance or use of any prize. Winner assumes all liability for any injury or damage caused, or claimed to be caused, by participation in this sweepstakes or acceptance or use of any prize. Entrant constitutes permission for Sponsor and its agents, licensees and assigns to use winner's name and likeness for purposes of advertising and trade without further compensation, unless prohibited by law. Sponsor makes no warranties, and hereby disclaims any and all warranties, express or implied, concerning any prize furnished in connection with the sweepstakes. Any and all disputes, claims, and causes of action arising out of or in connection with this sweepstakes shall be resolved individually, without resort to any form of class action. This Sweepstakes shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Texas, regardless of principles of conflicts of laws that may require the application of the laws of another jurisdiction. Any action or litigation concerning this sweepstakes shall take place exclusively in the federal or state courts sitting in Dallas, Texas, and each entrant expressly consents to the jurisdiction of and venue in such courts and waives all defenses of lack of jurisdiction and inconvenient forum with respect to such courts. Each entrant agrees to service of process by mail or other method acceptable under the laws of the State of Texas. ANY CLAIMS, JUDGMENTS AND/OR AWARDS SHALL BE LIMITED TO ACTUAL, OUT-OF-POCKET COSTS ASSOCIATED WITH ENTERING THIS SWEEPSTAKES. ENTRANT HEREBY WAIVES ANY RIGHTS OR CLAIMS TO ATTORNEY'S FEES, INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OF ENTRANT, WHETHER FORESEEABLE OR NOT AND WHETHER BASED ON NEGLIGENCE OR OTHERWISE.

6. WINNERS LIST: For a list of winner(s), send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to: Beckett Football Report Card #191 Winners List, 15850 Dallas Parkway, Dallas, TX 75248, by April 1, 2006.

BECKETT PRICE GUIDE BOOKS FOR EVERY COLLECTOR!

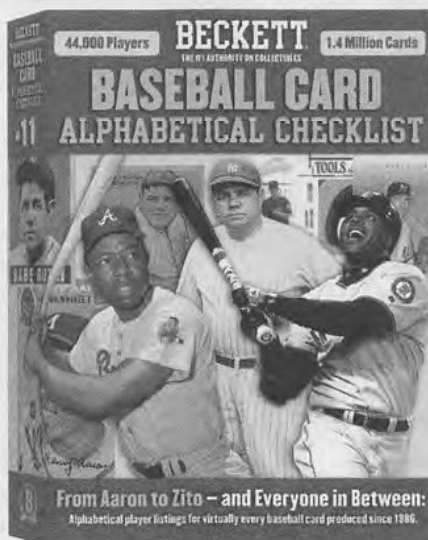

OUR NEWEST PRICE GUIDE BOOKS

Beckett Baseball Card Price Guide

2006 edition (No. 28) $29.95

The latest edition of the world's most trusted baseball card price guide. For nearly three decades now, Beckett has provided this comprehensive source for checklists and prices of virtually all major manufacturer baseball card sets. Thousands of new items are included in this new edition, which covers cards produced from 1887 to present!

Beckett Baseball Card Alphabetical Checklist

2006 edition (No. 11) $34.95

First update in five years! Includes more than 44,000 player listings in an improved user-friendly format. Features complete alphabetical player listings from 1886 to present with each player card listed consecutively by year of issue. New format uses expanded, easier-to-read set names. It's an indispensable reference for all baseball card collectors.

Beckett Hockey Card Price Guide

2005-06 edition (No. 15) $29.95

Lists more than half a million cards and includes an easy-to-use alphabetical guide cataloging every card issued for more than 25,000 individual players and coaches. Includes pricing for player cards from the NHL, minor and junior leagues, as well as European leagues - nearly every hockey card ever produced!

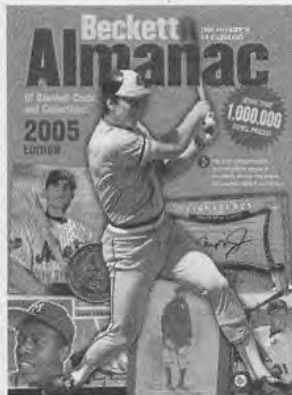

Beckett Basketball Card Price Guide

2005-06 edition (No. 13) $29.95

Beckett Football Card Price Guide

2005-06 edition (No. 22) $29.95

SNEAK PEEK

2005 Leaf Rookies and Stars and 2005 Sweet Spot went live shortly before our pricing deadline, not allowing sufficient time to establish secondary market values on all cards. Check next month's magazine or the New Release Pricing area on Beckett.com for a possible listing. Initial trading on some key cards was consistent enough to provide early pricing below in addition to reported early sales on the more scarce cards. Those reported sales are listed in parentheses.

The Need-To-Know on This Month's Newly Priced Products

#100 Demarcus Ware: Along with Merriman and Johnson, Ware was one of the linebackers taken in the first 15 picks from last April's draft. He had an immediate impact this year. He sacked quarterbacks twice and forced three fumbles.

With manufacturers cutting back on using loads of bucks for a small number of signatures, Donruss/Play checklist for Z-Graphs. It's full of second-tier guys who getting hot in the very near future like Jake Delhomme, Brian Urlacher and Brian Westbrook. Other players are still be found for less than $30: Matt Hasselbeck, Chad Ward and Reggie Wayne.

GOIN' DEEP

2005 TOPPS HERITAGE

Topps Heritage can be one of the more challenging base sets to put together, but one of the most enjoyable if you commit to chasing all of the short-prints. The huge 365-card set actually contains 400 different cards with all of the variations.

While the SPs are inserted one per pack

(24 per box), that's just enough to whet your appetite since you'll need more than four boxes worth to build the set of 100 SPs. Those 100 include the final 65 cards in the set (#301-#365) along with 35 more rookie variations. The rookie variation SPs were produced with either the 1958 Topps football card design or show the player wearing a throwback jersey from the Rookie Premiere Photo Shoot. Although the short-prints are roughly twice as tough to find as the basic issue RCs, secondary market sales value the cards at just slightly higher. No matter, the challenge is there and plenty of collectors are up to the task.

2005 LEAF LIMITED

What can you say about Leaf Limited that hasn't already been said or already been analyzed or written about? Not much, so we'll simply say that we're amazed again by the staggering number of super-premium swatches and high-end autographed cards found in 2005 Leaf Limited.

The product again has delivered a huge number of pack hits large enough to make any collector's year. One of these inserts, Lettermen, was created by Fleer in 2002, since duplicated by all the manufacturers, continues to sell at enormous prices. Seeing a gigantic single letter swatch covering practically the entire card makes you feel you're holding something special, and you are. Here are realized prices of Lettermen cards:

LM1 Barry Sanders/8 - $700	LM12 Jerry Rice/4 - $405
LM2 Ben Roethlisberger/14 - $325, $625	LM13 Joe Montana/7 - $745
LM3 Brian Urlacher/8 - $285	LM15 LaDainian Tomlinson/9 - $160, $210, $295
LM5 Clinton Portis/6 - $155, $185	LM16 Larry Fitzgerald/10 - $230
LM6 Corey Dillon/6 - $95, $115	LM17 Michael Clayton/7 - $155
LM7 Dan Marino/6 - $1000	LM18 Peyton Manning/7 - $290, $670
LM8 Daunte Culpepper/9 - $175	LM21 Shaun Alexander/9 - $350, $585
LM10 Edgerrin James/5 - $145, $205	LM24 Walter Payton/6 - $715
LM11 Terry Bradshaw/8 - $395, $430

GRADED CARD PRICE GUIDE

THE WORLD'S MOST TRUSTED SOURCE IN COLLECTING.

HOW TO USE AND CONDITION GUIDE

What's Listed

Pricing coverage is provided for a selection of the most popular graded modern era cards. Each month, we'll strive to add new listings as demand warrants and reliable information becomes available.

It's important to note that the prices for graded cards listed in this issue are derived from secondary market activity almost entirely from these established services at this time: BCCG, BGS, GAI, PSA and SGC. Based upon factors such as market presence, public perception of grading accuracy and/or publicly available population reports these companies have garnered a high degree of consumer confidence resulting in commonly traded cards that carry consistent secondary market values and substantial premiums (over raw cards) on high-end material. We track all cards from all grading services. However due to factors such as inconsistent market presence and/or consumer confidence, high-end cards from companies not specifically detailed in our Grading Legend typically trade at noticeably lower premiums than the established companies we list. In cases on cards where trading volume and consumer demand is high enough, we've broken out separate listings for most of the major companies and a fifth listing labeled "Other" that encompasses the remaining actively traded grading services. Please see our Grading Legend on this page for further details.

Conditions Listed

The most commonly traded conditions will be listed (for modern cards that typically equate to Gem Mint and Mint).

Not all cards, however, will have listings for every grade due to scarcity or lack of interest. For example, Pristine graded cards from BGS and SGC are rarely seen. In these cases, a monthly range of value will not be provided. We will, however, make every effort to provide information on these cards when available in the form of editorial sidebars or our hand blurbs (look for the little black pointing hands).

Finally, lower grade cards from the modern era (typically, anything below NM-MT) draw little, if any, premium above non-graded cards in the same condition and are rarely seen in circulation. For these reasons, our graded card coverage focuses almost exclusively on high-end material.
